Ernst Cultural Center (CE),
NOVA Annandale Campus
Wednesday, March 1, 2017, at 10 a.m.
(Social Time at 9:30 a.m.)

Autism Spectrum Disorder: What Are the Signs and Variations, Treatment Interventions and Services Available, Programs for Parents and Caretakers, and Some of the Latest Research?

Why has Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) been increasing in recent decades? This remains a mystery — an area being studied according to the U.S. Center for Disease Control. Presently about 1 in 68 children are diagnosed with varying symptoms. Many cases seem to be linked to inherited genes and/or spontaneous genetic copying mutations with no prior history. Several theories about the causes of ASD, such as childhood vaccines and the lack of parenting skills, have been widely disproved. This neurodevelopment disorder places tremendous challenges on children, families, caregivers, and our society. Elizabeth Roy, the Managing Director of The Autism Society of Northern Virginia, will give an overview of what autism is, its characteristics, signs, and symptoms, common approaches to treatments and therapies, current research trends, and what we can do to support individuals in our community who are touched by autism. Ms. Roy will also discuss legislative initiatives at the local, state, and Federal levels.

Arts and Crafts Exhibit

It's again time to show what talented people we have in LLI. Our annual Arts and Crafts Exhibit is scheduled in conjunction with the Wednesday, April 5 Forum. So, all you artisans — whether painter, potter, jeweler, needle crafter, photographer, fabric artist, card maker, weaver, doll maker, or any other medium — please contact Arlene Gribben, arlenegribb@aol.com or (703) 569-0357, no later than Saturday, March 18, to let her know what you plan to enter in the exhibit. It could be something you constructed 30 years ago or yesterday. Due to limited space, each person can submit no more than two items.

On April 5 participants need to bring their items to the classrooms next to the forum room by 8:15 a.m. We will only have 45 minutes to set up, so please be on time. The exhibit will be from 9 a.m. until the start of the forum at 10 a.m. and during the break before the business meeting. If you have any questions, please contact Arlene.

Let's make this exhibit as successful as in past years. The way to have that happen is to have a lot of enthusiastic participants. Arlene is ready to hear from you.

Cancellations Due to Inclement Weather

If the Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) cancel school for the day due to inclement weather or other emergency, all LLI classes, Forums, and other activities, except trips, are cancelled regardless of class location. LLI morning classes are cancelled if the FCPS announces a 2-hour delay in class openings; LLI afternoon classes are cancelled if the FCPS announces early dismissal.

LLI's Friendship Connection

Pat Harrison, 703-550-7530, pjharris80@msn.com

One of the benefits of LLI membership is making friends. We like to show support for fellow members by sending a card to anyone who is ill or has suffered a loss. If you would like a card sent to an LLI member or spouse on behalf of the LLI membership, please contact Pat Harrison. Be sure to include sufficient information so an appropriate card may be selected.

President's Message

The 2017 Winter-Spring LLI/NOVA Class Program is underway with two continuing issues, no-shows and waitlisted applicant requests. The two problems are somewhat linked. Our most experienced volunteers, including class coordinators, administrators who process 2,500 class requests and past LLI Presidents, have offered their thoughts on what can be done. We all have unavoidable calendar conflicts that come up, especially when the registration is three months or more in advance. Unlike some LLIs, we do not charge for classes, which inherently limits attendance (cost of certain materials an exception). Coordinators appreciate registrants who do provide notices of not being able to attend a class. However, these are few compared to upwards of 20-25 % no-shows for some classes. Experienced coordinators use a no-show factor when sizing the facility, but that does not work well when we are surprised by an unexpected high registration, especially with a new program.

This year's Winter-Spring Program has 389 waitlisted members involving 20 of the 50 classes offered. Setting aside the few classes when the instructor sets a low-class size, usually due to the hands-on nature of the instruction, there are few options to relocate a class with higher enrollment to a larger facility. Residential retirement facilities welcome our classes and can accommodate larger attendance. However, due to inadequate parking, we have difficulty scheduling classes there. With improved parking at Greenspring, we may schedule classes there again soon. Attempts to repeat a class in the same semester depends on facility and instructor availability, which is often difficult. The more practical solution is to offer the class again the following semester.

What can a member do to avoid the waitlist? Mail your registration early as classes are filled based on the post-mark of your envelope. Use your priority class ranking wisely and don't request more classes than you can realistically attend. Give the highest priority to the class that often fills up. The very popular iPhone classes by Kyla Lupo, for example, are already repeated regularly each program period. There may be the possibility of attending as a back-row non-participating observer. As the class date approaches, contact the class coordinator to see if there is any possibility of attending a class.

We appreciate your interest in helping to resolve these concerns for the greater enjoyment of LLI classes. The Curriculum Committee does an outstanding job of providing a high level of popular classes.

Scott Pinckney, LLI President

Community Outreach

Carol Weber, caroljeanweber@hotmail.com
Marianne Moerman, marianne.c.moerman@gmail.com

Our March donations of non-perishable food items will be delivered by Bea Taylor to the Church of the Resurrection's Lazarus Food Pantry — West End Alexandria. This food pantry was recently started and already serves between 125 -

130 people each Monday evening. Donations come from community organizations and individuals to help our neediest neighbors in the Alexandria corridor. Food items needed: low or no salt canned vegetables, tomato sauce, tomato products, baked beans (vegetarian), cereals, oatmeal, powdered milk (small packets 8 — 10 in a box), pasta (any kind), spaghetti sauce (can), complete pancake mix, syrup, peanut butter, jelly or jam (strawberry), sugar, brownie mix, tuna, liquid cooking oil, soup, ramen noodles, potatoes in a box, packs of dried beans, cheese, and spam.

Church member Carleigh Rockett and her Scout troop, with the help of Church of the Resurrection members, built a Little Food Pantry at the Bus Stop (Beauregard and Fillmore Avenues). Individuals at the bus stop can help themselves to small cans of fruit, tuna and green beans. These items are always needed. NPR recently featured the little pantry on its program. This will be the first time LLI has helped this organization. Thank you so much for your generosity!

Weekend Coffee Meetups by City / ZIP Codes

This spring LLI NOVA will be initiating a weekend social program to encourage members who live near each other to connect and socialize.

Members in designated zip codes will be invited to meet informally with their fellow members at a member host's home on a Saturday/Sunday afternoon for coffee/tea and socializing. There is no pressure to perform a task or activity — just enjoy a non-alcoholic drink and share a story with fellow LLI members who also live nearby.

Anna Dixon is the coordinator for this project. Karren Scott (Greater Alexandria) will host the first meetup on April 1 and Anna Dixon (Fairfax Station/Burke/Lorton) will host a meetup on April 22. Greater Springfield will be May 6 (tentative). Stay tuned!

Join the LLI Poetry Group for a Spring Fling!

You are enthusiastically invited to attend a "Spring Fling" sponsored by the LLI Poetry Group. For all those who have enjoyed our past Valentine's Day Socials, we decided to move the event to a more "weather-friendly" time of year, as we have had to cancel some of the February events due to snow and ice. Please come and celebrate with us! We will still feature all the things you enjoy — flowers, live music, balloons, light fare and treats — just at a more comfortable time of the year. Please bring a poem to share with the group. It can be something you've written yourself or one of your classic favorites. And even though Valentine's Day will have come and gone, it is always time for poetry about love! We look forward to seeing you there!

Study Travel

The Study Travel Committee finished their detailed reviews of specific tours to the six destinations selected for consideration for 2018. This information was sent to the Study Travel mailing list, requesting they select their top three destinations. Based on the responses, we expect to reduce our options to three or fewer destinations before the March Forum.

The destinations that we are currently considering are:

- Northern Tier US National Parks (both versions, i.e., including Mt. Rushmore, and Mt. Rushmore and Southwest Parks extension)
- California State/National Parks (including Yosemite)
- The Canadian Maritimes
- Adriatic/Dalmatian Coast (land tour)
- Italy — Northern Regions and Major Cities

Our June 2017 trip to Scotland, “Scottish Isles and Glens,” may now have one double room available. We are accepting members on our “Wait List” for this trip, so contact Bob Huley if you are interested. There are still cabins available for our second 2017 trip, “Cruising Burgundy & Provence to the Côte d’Azur.” If you are interested in joining us on this river cruise, the trip flyer is posted on the LLI website (<http://lli.nova.org>) or you can contact Bob Huley for more information.

To join the Study Travel email list and participate in the 2018 trip selection process, contact Bob Huley at (703) 534-4819 or roberthuley@cox.net. We are seeking more help to analyze destinations and tours for future trips and to provide the Study classes for our destinations. Please let Bob know if you are interested. See you at the March Forum.

About Growing Older

First — Eventually you will reach a point when you stop lying about your age and start bragging about it.

Second — The older we get, the fewer things seem worth waiting in line for.

Third — Some people try to turn back their odometers. Not me; I want people to know 'why' I look this way. I've traveled a long way, and some of the roads weren't paved.

Fourth — When you are dissatisfied and would like to go back to youth, think of Algebra.

Fifth — You know you are getting old when everything either dries up or leaks.

Sixth — I don't know how I got over the hill without getting to the top.

Seventh — One of the many things no one tells you about aging is that it's such a nice change from being young.

Eighth — One must wait until evening to see how splendid the day has been.

Ninth — Being young is beautiful, but being old is comfortable.

Tenth — Long ago, when men cursed and beat the ground with sticks, it was called witchcraft. Today it's called golf.

And, finally — If you don't learn to laugh at trouble, you won't have anything to laugh at when you're old.

A New Take on Football

A guy took his girlfriend to her first football game. They had great seats right behind their team's bench. After the game, he asked her how she liked it.

"Oh, I really liked it," she replied, "especially the tight pants and all the big muscles, but I just couldn't understand why they were killing each other over 25 cents."

Dumbfounded, her boyfriend asked, "What do you mean?"

"Well, they flipped a coin, one team got it and then for the rest of the game, all they kept screaming was... 'Get the quarterback! Get the quarterback! I'm like...Helloooooo? It's only 25 cents!!!!!"

Incontrovertible Universal Laws

We Didn't Believe These Laws at First,
But Have Found Them to Be True
from Actual Experience

Law of Probability — The probability of being watched is directly proportional to the stupidity of your act.

Supermarket Law — As soon as you get in the smallest line, the cashier will have to call for help.

Variation Law — If you change lines (or traffic lanes), the one you were in will always move faster than the one you are in now.

Law of the Bath — When the body is fully immersed in water, the telephone rings.

Law of Close Encounters — The probability of meeting someone you know increases dramatically when you are with someone you don't want to be seen with.

Law of the Result — When you try to prove to someone that a machine won't work, it will.

Law of Physical Surfaces — The chances of an open-faced jam sandwich landing face down on a floor, are directly correlated to the newness and cost of the carpet or rug.

Wilson's Law of Commercial Marketing Strategy — As soon as you find a product that you really like, they will stop making it.

An Artful LLI/NOVA Spring Outing

Meeet your fellow LLI members at the National Gallery of Art on May 11 for lunch and to view the exhibition Frédéric Bazille and the Birth of Impressionism. Organized thematically, this exhibition juxtaposes works by Bazille with important works by the predecessors who inspired him — including Théodore Rousseau, Jean-Baptiste-Camille Corot, and Gustave Courbet — and by contemporaries such as Édouard Manet and Claude Monet, with whom he was closely associated. The National Gallery of Art, which holds the largest group of Bazille's works outside of France, as well as important related impressionist paintings of the 1860s, is the sole American venue for the exhibition. This is the first major presentation of Bazille's work in America in 25 years.

We will meet at the Gallery at 10:30 a.m. in the West Building Rotunda to tour the exhibition and then meet for lunch at 11:45 p.m. in the concourse main cafeteria. At 1:00 p.m. we will join an optional lecture, which ends by 2:30 p.m. LLI member, Anna Dixon, a 20 year docent at the National Gallery, who will be with us throughout, will give an afternoon East Building modern art tour for those who wish to remain.

If you are interested in joining us, please register for this meet-up by calling or emailing your name to Pat Harrison no later than April 27. More information will be provided at a later time to those who register for the tour. If you have questions or want additional information, you may email or call Pat. Her contact information is in the LLI Directory.

Internet Alert

Lincoln's Cottage and The Franciscan Monastery

On Wednesday, May 17, we will start our day with a 10:30 a.m. tour of Abraham Lincoln's Cottage in northwest D.C on the grounds of the Armed Forces Retirement Home. Although Lincoln was not the only president to stay in the cottage, it is said he spent about a quarter of his presidency there, more than any other president, during which time he made some of his most critical decisions and wrote the Emancipation Proclamation. Lincoln commuted daily to the White House on horseback or by carriage. In 2000, President Bill Clinton declared the Cottage a National Monument and, after an eight-year restoration period, the Cottage opened to the public in 2008.

Our next stop will be the Franciscan Monastery, one of the best kept secrets in our area. Regardless of one's religious preference, the Monastery has something for everyone with its spectacular architecture, beautiful domes, and lovely gardens. The herb and flower gardens cover about 42 acres. Although there is no designated picnic area, benches and seating are available, where we will enjoy our box lunch in the gardens before the tour. Pansies, azaleas, lilies-of-the-valley, late blooming tulips, early blooming roses, irises, and rhododendrons are just a few of the blooms expected in the gardens during May. Our tour of the Monastery begins at 1:00 p.m. You must be able to walk at least 45 minutes to see both the upper and lower church. To see the lower church, you must walk 21 steps descending (railing available) and 30 steps ascending. You may choose to tour just the upper church and skip the lower church and catacombs.

PRICE: $55.00 includes transportation and tip, box lunch, cottage tour, and donations.

SIGN UP: This trip is limited to 24 registrants. The trip will be cancelled if the minimum number of registrations has not been received by March 24.
